Example 1	Statement 1 (measure)		This statement may be hard to measure because...
1	List of Quality Statements	Statement 2	Should this state that there is at least an annual review meeting - as some young people with complex and fluctuating needs will need more frequent reviews.
2	List of Quality Statements	Statement 4	There should also be a named worker to support the young person on an ongoing basis in adult services. This might be a designated worker in adult services who links with and takes over from the paediatric named worker.
3	List of Quality Statements	Statement 5	This should state that the young person will need to meet with practitioners from the range of adult services that they will transfer to. As written it implies that young people will just be using one service and having one meeting.
5	Definitions of terms in Statement 2	Statement 2	Young people and their families, shouldn't just be involved in the annual review, they should be central to it wherever possible.
6	Definitions of terms in Statement 2	Statement 2	The list of issues to address during the annual review should include living arrangements and short breaks.
