

Supporting children's hospice services
across the UK

"We immediately fell in love with that warm, happy, bright place, where everything had been done to minimise the sense of 'hospice' and maximise the sense of enjoying and celebrating life. The building was impressive, but the people even more so. At Demelza we were welcomed like old friends and we were cared for as a whole family. If you want your faith in humanity restored and if you want to see how families who often carry an unbearable burden of responsibility are supported, then go to Demelza."

By partnering with Together for Short Lives, your company can support children's hospice services local to your business locations, raising awareness and vital funds to directly support seriously ill children and their families in your local communities.

There are 49,000 children and young people in the UK living with a life-threatening or life-limiting condition. Together for Short Lives is the leading UK charity for these children, their families and the children's hospice services that they rely upon. We work to ensure that every child living with a life-limiting condition and their family get the best possible care and support wherever they are, and whenever they need it.

We help to make a lifetime of difference by:

- Raising essential funds for children's hospice services across the UK, helping them to continue to provide vital, free support;
- Supporting children's hospice service care teams, helping them to provide the highest standards of care;
- Raising awareness of children's hospice services and providing information and advice, so that everyone knows about their work and how to access the support they may need;
- Representing children's hospice services to ensure their voice is heard.

Children's hospice services are a lifeline. They provide flexible, practical and free care and support at home and in the hospice to the entire family, often over many years and at any stage of the child's illness.

Together for Short Lives raises money for all 49 children's hospice services in England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland.

How we support you

Together for Short Lives supports national partnerships on behalf of all children's hospice services across the UK. Our team will provide dedicated support at a national level, with our network of children's hospice services providing key support at a local level.

Nationally we will:

- Provide a dedicated Account Manager and PR Officer
- Manage the relationship with all children's hospice services
- Plan an exciting and diverse fundraising calendar, tailored to your company
- Develop a programme of volunteering and pro bono opportunities
- Engage and motivate your staff through visits to children's hospices, regular updates and promotion of fundraising and volunteering activities
- Implement a PR plan to maximise national and regional coverage

Locally we will:

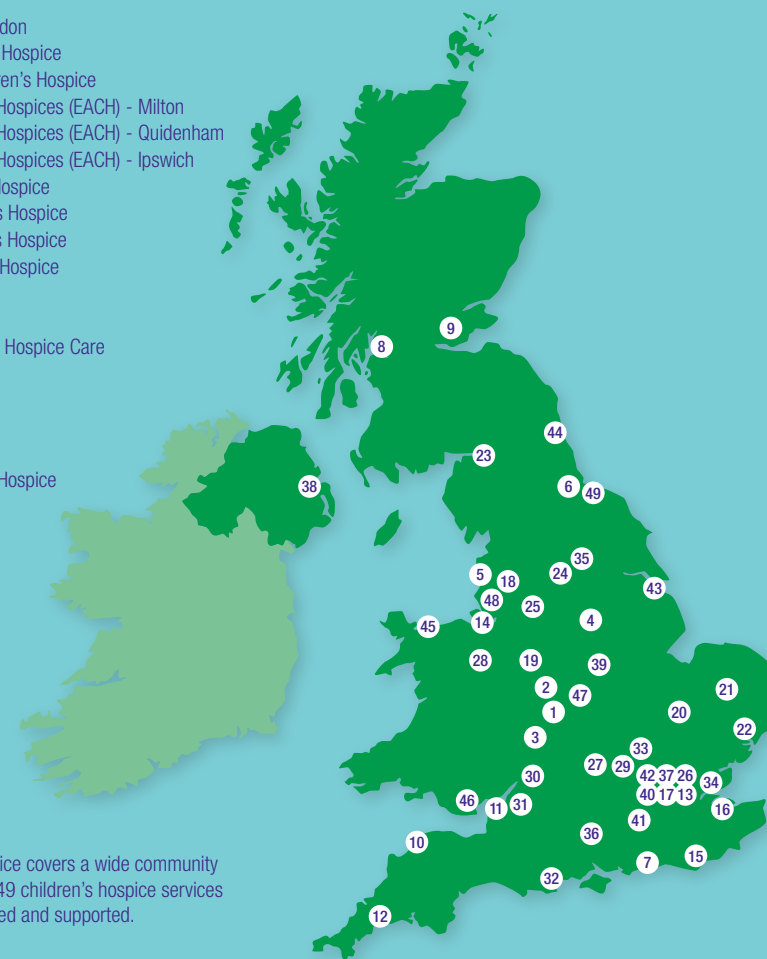

- Support and motivate each of your business locations, providing local fundraising support and attend events
- Organise visits to local children's hospice services for your staff to see the difference they are making
- Organise visits to your business locations from children's hospice staff to talk about the work of their local children's hospice service
- Provide volunteering opportunities for staff to get involved

"The Charity Team at Travis Perkins were hugely impressed by the work being done by Together for Short Lives. The level of engagement was really important to us and they were prepared to go the extra mile in ensuring it was a win/win for both parties. They were always willing and able to venture into new areas of activities which certainly helped Travis Perkins in driving engagement from its own colleagues. Nothing was ever too much trouble."
