Office Sweepstakes

Sweepstakes are a great way to fundraise within your office. They involve your entire team and can create engagement and motivation that most people can get behind. Whether it's for the Grand National, Royal baby names, a sporting event or even a TV show finale!

Make your sweepstake a success

Donations Each entry should cost the same.

Leader

Ensure someone is in charge of collecting donations and organising the sweepstake.

Theme

Choose a sweepstake that everyone in the team can get behind.

Winner

Confirm a great prize to boost moral and engagement in the office!

Law Check before you start that it's legal. There are laws that restrict office 'gambling', so always be sure to check before you start.

Sweepstakes take little effort and are an easy way to fundraise for Together for Short Lives. All while having fun! We have a range of resources to give your sweepstake challenge that extra edge. Be sure to get in touch for your every need! Don't forget to send us your photos and tag us in your tweets. #OfficeSweepstakes

The Tour de France Whether you are a cyclist or not, bring the adrenaline packed cycle challenge into your office. and dub it: 'The Tour de Office.'

The Grand National

Instead of losing your money at the races, why not donate it towards Together for Short Lives? Not a fan of racing? Why not bet on the colour of the Queens outfit!

Oscar Winners

The 92nd Academy Awards ceremony in early 2020 is a great sweepstake event. Swear allegience to your favourite actor or rally behind a blind choice.

The Rugby World Cup Step aside from your long standing team and draw your sweepstake team from a hat. A great talking point in the office and one to bring the team together.

Royal Baby Names Why not try to guess the next Royal name? Have a list of potentials or submit your own. You could even merge this to sweepstake who will be the next royal to have a baby.

Grand Prix

Formula One World Championships are the biggest motor racing championships in the world. Can you get on board and add some speed to your sweepstakes?

TV Shows

Everyone enjoys relaxing and watching some TV, so why not bring it into the office. Love Island, The X Factor or The Great British Bake Off. Choose the winner to win!
